BCS Foundation Certificate in Data Protection Answer Key and Rationale

Question	Answer	Rationale	Syllabus Sections
1	C	The Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 should be read alongside the GDPR. The GDPR will apply to any personal data being collected.	LO1.1.
2	A	Where a company processes the personal data of EU data subjects in the offering of goods and services or tracking of their behaviour, and they do not have a legal presence in the EU, they must appoint a representative in the EU.	LO1.2.
3	B	Personal data revealing criminal convictions is not listed in Article 9 as special category data. Criminal offence data has its own category in Article 10 of the GDPR.	LO2.1.
4	A	Article 4(7) of the GDPR defines a Controller as the "Natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data."	LO2.1.
5	B	Article 4(1) of the GDPR defines Personal Data as "Any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject')."	LO2.1.
6	C	Article 5(1)(c) of the GDPR defines the Data Minimisation principle as follows: "Personal data shall be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed."	LO2.2.
7	D	Where there is a disagreement about the accuracy of personal data, it does not follow that it should be deleted. For example, where there is a legal obligation to collect and process personal data, the right to erasure does not apply.	LO2.2.
8	C	The text "Personal data shall be kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed" partially defines the Storage Limitation Principle as per Article 5(1)(e) of the GDPR.	LO2.2.
9	C	One of the tasks of the DPO would be to ensure that a training course contains all the necessary information to make sure people understand their responsibilities. All individuals should do training and refresher training regularly. Training should be tailored to bespoke responsibilities for any individuals who may handle higher risk data.	LO4.9
10	C	Recital 46 of the GDPR provides clarification that 'vital interests' means "an interest which is	LO3.1.

Question	Answer	Rationale	Syllabus Sections
		essential for the life of the data subject or that of another natural person". Article 6(1)(d) GDPR (Vital Interests) therefore applies only to life and death situations.
11	D	Article 4(11) defines 'consent' of the data subject as "any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her". Consent cannot therefore be implied from the data subjects actions.	LO3.1.
12	A	Legitimate interests is not a condition for processing Special Category Data under Article 9 of the GDPR.	LO3.2.
13	B	Article 9(2)(j) of the GDPR provides that Article 9(1) does not apply where the "processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes...". Political purposes in the public interest is not therefore such a condition for processing.	LO3.2.
14	A	Article 5(2) states "The controller shall be responsible for, and be able to demonstrate compliance with, paragraph 1 [the other data protection principles]."	LO4.1.
15	C	Recital 90 states that "A data protection impact assessment should be carried out by the controller prior to the processing in order to assess the particular likelihood and severity of the high risk, taking into account the nature, scope, context and purposes of the processing and the sources of the risk. That impact assessment should include, in particular, the measures, safeguards and mechanisms envisaged for mitigating that risk, ensuring the protection of personal data and demonstrating compliance with this Regulation."	LO4.2.
16	C	Before processing Personal Data, it should be established whether a DPIA is required. This is the first logical step of the process identified. Having identified that a DPIA is required those risks must be identified before they can be assessed. As soon as the risks have been appropriately assessed, they should then be mitigated where possible.	LO4.3.
17	D	Article 30(1) of the GDPR requires a Controller and the Controllers representative to keep a record of processing activity. Article 30(2) of the GDPR requires each processor and, where	LO4.4.

		applicable, the processor's representative to maintain a record of all categories of processing activities carried out on behalf of a controller. A Data Subject is the subject of the data. There are no obligations on data subjects in the GDPR.
18	A	Article 13(1) and Article 13(2) stipulate that information provided in an Article 13 Privacy Notice must be provided at the time the data is collected.	LO4.5.
19	B	Undertaking Data Protection Impact Assessments when proposing to process any data that may be of a high risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals clearly furthers the privacy by design and default approach.	LO4.6.
20	D	The right to be forgotten is not one of the information security measures identified by Article 32 of the GDPR.	LO4.7.
21	A	The role of the Data Protection Officer must be free of conflict and report to the most senior authority. They cannot be a member of the Board.	LO4.8.
22	D	Article 26(1) of the GDPR states "Where two or more controllers jointly determine the purposes and means of processing, they shall be joint controllers".	LO5.1.
23	A	A processor acts under the instruction of a Controller (Article 28, Article 29).	LO5.1.
24	B	A processor acts under the instruction of a Controller (Article 28, Article 29), a controller does not act under the instruction of a processor.	LO5.1.
25	D	Article 45 states that "A transfer of personal data to a third country or an international organisation may take place where the Commission has decided that the third country, a territory or one or more specified sectors within that third country, or the international organisation in question ensures an adequate level of protection."	LO6.1.
26	C	The European Commission are the only body who can approve Standard Contractual Clauses.	LO6.1.
27	A	A privacy notice supports the right to be informed in providing the Data Subject with information about the processing.	LO7.1.
28	D	The Right to Restrict Processing will not apply as the Controller is under a legal obligation to undertake the processing.	LO7.1.
29	C	The Right to Withdraw Consent will not apply where Consent is not being relied on as a legal basis.	LO7.1.

Question	Answer	Rationale	Syllabus Sections
30	B	Article 23 of the GDPR allows member states to pass legislation to restrict Data Subject Rights in prescribed areas.	LO7.3.
31	D	In the UK, a Data Subject's rights under the GDPR can be restricted by provisions contained in The Data Protection Act 2018.	LO7.3.
32	B	India has not received an adequacy decision.	LO6.1
33	C	The role of Information Commissioner is an independent official, appointed by the state, that reports directly to the UK Parliament.	LO8.1.
34	A	Article 60 of the GDPR states that "The lead supervisory authority may request at any time other supervisory authorities concerned to provide mutual assistance pursuant to Article 61 and may conduct joint operations pursuant to Article 62, in particular for carrying out investigations or for monitoring the implementation of a measure concerning a controller or processor established in another Member State."	LO8.1.
35	C	In issuing codes of practice under the GDPR, the ICO sets out best practice to assist a controller or a processor in conducting their business lawfully.	LO8.1.
36	B	Article 33 of the GDPR provides that a data breach should be reported to the Supervisory Authority unless the personal data breach is unlikely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons. It therefore follows that any breach which results in a high risk of adversely affecting the rights and freedoms of data subjects is a reportable breach.	LO9.1.
37	D	An information notice can be issued under s142 of the Data Protection Act 2018 to require a controller or a processor to provide information in order for it to carry out an investigation.	LO9.2.
38	B	Only B is classed as marketing.	LO10.1
39	B	The ICO can bring criminal litigation for offences under the Computer Misuse Act.	LO9.3.
40	D	PECR does not relate to the security of computer networks of public services.	LO10.1.
